  - Clinical trial agreements for multiple trials
  - Informed Consent Forms compliant with the various laws of the EU member states
  - Clinical vendor agreements
  - Commercial supply agreements
- Assist the General Counsel on EU business development transactions, including collaboration, out-licensing, in-licensing, acquisition and other strategic transactions;
- Create, update and maintain contract templates and SOPs;
- Lead the UK/EU's data privacy compliance, including compliance with the GDPR
- Prepare and deliver relevant training as necessary within Aimmune.

Additional Responsibilities (depending on candidate's prior experience)

- Manage corporate governance and compliance for the company's international subsidiaries;
- Support the company's UK office on all legal matters;
- Assist the General Counsel with corporate governance matters from a EU/UK perspective;
- Play an active role in other legal matters, including healthcare compliance, real estate, employment, litigation and corporate matters.

Qualifications / Requirements:

- Several years of post-qualification experience, both in-house and/or with a law firm; in-house life sciences experience working extensively with a variety of clinical stage contracts;
- Experience on advising on commercial matters;
- Willingness to work within company's existing contracts request system and database
- Demonstrated application of business judgment in solving legal problems;
- Good working knowledge of English law and relevant European legislation;
- Willingness to become involved with other areas, such as employment matters, healthcare compliance, etc.;
- Excellent organizational and planning skills, with the ability to handle multiple projects simultaneously;
- Self-starter; able to work with minimal supervision;
- Exemplary drafting skills;
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills;
- Ability to collaborate and function well in a team environment;
- Customer service oriented, pragmatic and proactive approach to work;
- International travel required.

Preferred Experience, Special Skills, Knowledge:

- You will report to the General Counsel but be confident at working in a standalone basis.
